Last year I indicated that “change” best described our situation. This year I use the phrase “perseverance and adaptability in continuous flux”. Many of our members have experienced extreme stresses and strains. Most of us are single-person operations, trying to wear too many hats in a too short work week. We have lost members through retirement and other opportunities. But still we persevere and adapt. Our network continues to be an invaluable and important support.

The Network had six regular meetings this year. We met in Kitchener, Guelph, Waterloo, Brantford, and Cambridge. Lively and frank discussions were the norm. We worked on the development of a network Web page, finalized our constitutional changes, and discovered the joys of teleconferencing. MLA’s “The effect of e-journals on your library” was a highlight. We honoured Joy Weiss, a founding member of our chapter. Most recently, much of our energy has been spend in planning the 2002 CHLA conference. Our annual Christmas party was a huge success and a potluck barbecue followed our Annual General Meeting.

Our incoming executive 2001-2003:

Nancy Pal, President
Elaine Baldwin, Treasurer
Brenda Vegso, Secretary

A reminder to mark your calendars—2002 is fast approaching. WWDHLN will be hosting the next CHLA/ABSC Conference. We are looking forward to seeing you!
